

November 13, 14 & 15

Tulsa Community College-Tulsa, Ok.

West Campus-7505 West 41st Street
Student Activities Center

(formerly the Muscogee Film Festival)

Thursday, November -13

7 p.m. 'Chingachkook'-In the 1960's, East German "Indianerfilms" were introduced. Based on the Novel 'The Deerslayer' by James Fenimore Cooper. With English subtitles. Running Time-86 min.

Friday, November 14

6 p.m. 'Redskins, Tricksters, and Puppy Stew'--From Canada, Native Director Drew Hayden Taylor explores the question, "what exactly is Indian humor?" Running Time-55 min.

7:30 p.m. 'Cradle Song'-From Native Director Darlene Ponce who will introduce the film, the production is an independent 'Rez Style' music type film built around a small Ojibway community. Running Time-72 min.

Saturday, November 15

1:30 p.m. 'The Redman's View'-A 1909 Hollywood silent film from director D.W. Griffith. Running Time-15 min.

2:00 p.m. 'Spirit of Annie Mae' -This film explores the life of Annie Mae Aquash, an inspirational leader in the fight for Native American rights before her murder in 1975. Running Time-73 min.

4:00 p.m. 'Cradle Song'

6:00 p.m. 'Imagining Indians'-From Native Director Victor Maysayesva, this documentary exposes Hollywood for its glamorized portrayals of American Indians. Running Time-60 min.

7:30 p.m. 'Pow-Wow Highway'-The classic 'skin' film from 1989 with Gary Farmer as Philbert on a quest riding his 'war-pony'! Running Time-90 min.

Dinner to follow Saturday evening's showing, as well as a Philbert look a-like contest with prizes! All events are free and open to the public, donations toward future festivals and scholarships are much appreciated. For more information contact Gerald Wofford at #(918) 732-7635
The Red Fork Native American Film Festival is held in conjunction with these sponsors:

P.O. Box 692859, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74169 Formerly the Oklahoma Indian Times 918-438-6548 FAX 918-438-6545

Native American Student Alliances

Native American Studies